

COOKIES POLICY

In order to provide the best service, GLOBULINKS website (the Website) uses technologies that store small amounts of information on your computer's hard drive (HDD) or other device, called "cookies". Your Internet browser uses this information, sending it back to the server each time you visit the Website.

1. What are cookies?

In general, cookies are classified into the following types:

Strictly necessary cookies

These cookies are necessary for the functioning of the Website and cannot be excluded in our systems. They are usually only set in response to actions undertaken such as to request for our services, setting your privacy preferences, logging in, or filling out forms. You can set your browser to block or warn you about these cookies, but then some parts of the site will not work. These cookies do not store any personal information.

Functional cookies

These cookies enable the website to provide enhanced functionality and personalization. They may be set by us or by third-party providers whose services we have added to our pages. If you do not allow these cookies then some or all of these services may not function properly.

Analytical and Targeting cookies

The Website uses the services of Google Analytics. These cookies allow us to count visits and traffic sources so that we can measure and improve the performance of our Website. They help us understand which pages are popular and see how visitors interact with the Website. All information collected by these cookies is aggregated and therefore anonymous. Subsequently, this information can be used to improve the connectivity of the Website with global search engines, which allows us to be found more easily. If you do not enable these cookies, we will not know when you visited our Website and we will not be able to monitor its functioning.

Additionally, we are using cookies to facilitate social media functionalities or may be set through our site by our advertising partners.

2. Use of information collected through cookies.

Each cookie may contain anonymous information, such as unique code, information about the country from which the Website is visited, or other information that may only be used for analytical purposes.

Typically, the Website uses cookies for the following purposes: Ensuring and maintaining the security of Internet traffic on the Website. Remembering details that you have entered so that they do not have to be entered every time you navigate between the pages of the Website. These details are stored while you are on the Website and are deleted as soon as you leave it. Collecting and compiling anonymous, synthesized information for statistical purposes that helps us understand how you use the Website and subsequently improve its structure, functionality and content. We use cookies that store information while you are on the Website, as well as cookies that store it for a longer period of time, so that the next time you visit the Website, we may provide you with optimal information.

3. Blocking or deleting cookies.

By continuing to use the Website, you agree to our Cookie Policy and the usage of all cookies described herein.

Because we understand that you may not want the above anonymous information about you to be collected and stored, even though it cannot be used in any way to identify you on the Internet, you may block cookies on your computer by follow the instructions provided by the manufacturer of the internet browser you are using, delete cookies stored on your device or deactivate the use of cookies in the future.

Detailed instructions for the various browsers and operating systems can be found at <http://www.aboutcookies.org/> (in English). However, we must remind you that refusing cookies on the Website will significantly impair its functionality, making it impossible for the optimal experience that we strive to provide with each visit. Strictly necessary cookies, without which the Website cannot function, cannot be blocked.

If you need more information about the cookies used by the Website, you can contact us at office@globulinks.com
